EMIGRATION TO THE RED RIVER AND TRINITY COLONY, TEXAS.

TRINITY COLONY, TEXAS.

THE parties to the contract made by the Government of Texas, under the special acts and authority of Congress, passed February 4th, 1841, and January 16th, 1843, with Peters and others, for the purpose of Colonizing a portion of the vacant and unappropriated lands of the Republic, having formed themselves into an association called "The Texan Emigration and Land Company," appointed the undersigned as trustees, and vested in them full power and authority to carry out and fulfil the objects and intentions of the parties thereto. We would, therefore, respectfully give notice to those who may wish to avail themselves of the liberal terms and conditions now offered by the Company, to settlers in their Colony, that we now have at the settlement, at the forks of the Trinity River, a permanent resident Agent, Mr. Charles S. Hensley, an intelligent and competent gentleman, who will at all times be prepared to receive and locate to their satisfaction, without delay, all who may go there to settle.

To all emigrants who shall go on to the grant and settle in the Colony, on or before the 1st day of July, 1846, the Company will give to each and every family 220 acres of land, and to each and every single man over the age of seventeen years 160 acres of land, to be selected by themselves, upon paying to our agent, for the cost of the surveys of the lands upon which they shall settle, at the rate of $16 for each family, and $8 for each single man, and the actual expense of the deeds and the record thereof, and, if the parties are without money, a note will be taken, bearing interest. By a family is to be understood a man and his wife, with or without children, a widow or widower, with two or more children under the age of seventeen years, or two men over the age of seventeen years, shall each be entitled to 160 acres of land in their own right, beside the 250 acres given to the family of which they are members.

Our Agent, Mr. Hensley, who was raised in the richest part of Kentucky, says of the country were it not for the absence of the Houris, that he was transplanted into Mahomed'sparadise."

All communications, post paid, addressed to the undersigned, trustees, at Louisville, Ky., or to either of them, on business of the Company, shall meet with prompt attention.

THE BEST, AND CHEAPEST, AND MOST UNIFORM SERIES OF STANDARD SCHOOL BOOKS

TO those engaged in the important, but arduous task of instructing youth, McGUFFEY'S ECLECTIC READERS, Nos. ONE, TWO, THREE AND FOUR, are now presented, thoroughly revised, and greatly enlarged, with many important improvements. They are now in a permanent stereotype form, NO FURTHER ALTERATIONS being intended.

Prof. McGuffey's enthusiastic devotion to the cause of Education, his fine taste and discriminating mind, and his practical experience as an instructer, render him peculiarly fitted for the department of authorship, to which he has given his attention. The suggestions of intelligent teachers who had used the former editions of the series, and the valuable sid afforded him in the revision by an experienced educator, have also furnished him with unusual facilities for advantageously revising and enlarging these works.

In this series, comprising as it does, a careful selection of instructive, entertaining and moral matter, progressively arranged, and graduated with reference to the capacity of the pupil, Prof. McGuffey has afforded to parents and teachers, a most thorough, cemplete, and efficient auxiliary in the education of youth. Its extensive use has been sufficient for the development and just appreciation of its many excellencies. The result is, that intelligent teachers pronounce it the most complete series now before the public.

preciation of its many excellencies. The result is, that intelligent teachers pronounce it the most complete series now before the public.

The intrinsic merit of Prof. McGuffey's Eclectic Readers, having gained for them an unparalleled and rapidly increasing circulation, the publisher is enabled, notwithstanding the heavy expenditure in their revision and enlargement, to manufacture them in the neatest and most durable manner, while they are now furnished at such low prices, that they are the CHEAPEST, as well as the best school reading books extant.

JUST PUBLISHED,

McGUFFEY'S RHETORICAL GUIDE; or Fifth Reader, of the Eclectic Series—460 pages, 12mo.; containing copious and minute rules, examples and exercises in articulation, inflection, emphasis, accent, quantity, rhetorical pause, modulation, expression, reading of poetry, rhetorical dialogue, gesture, and their collater al subjects, to which are added a great variety of elegant reading lessons, (about one half prose and half poetry,) selected from the most classic writers; furnishing entertaining and instructive specimens of various styles of composition. This work has been prepared with very great care, and with reference to making it a useful, practical, and standard book; and the publisher confidently hopes, that the Rhetorical Guide of Mr. McGuffey is well adapted to supply the wants of classes in rhetorical reading in our Acade mics, High Schools and Colleges.

And then the House adjourned. How DO YOU SPEND YOUR EVENINGS ?- Young man how do you spend your evenings? Answer this question, and we can tell you almost to a certainty what will be your future character. In our view, more depends upon the manner in which young men pass this season, as it regards their course and conduct in years to come, than upon any thing else. We have been an observer of men and things for the last twenty years, and can point to many a youth who has caused weeping and sorrow in his family, disgraced his name, and is now an outcast in the world, or has sunk into a dishonored grave, who commenced his career of vice, when he broke away from wholesome restraint, and spent his evenings in the company of the abandoned. On the contrary, we know many estimable young men-the pride and hope of their friends-who are working their way to favor and wealth, who spend their evenings in some useful pursuit.

Young men, listen to us and take heed to our words-not that we wish to deprive you of a single pleasure or debar you from any innocent amusement. We entreat you to be particular where and how you pass your hours. If you lounge about the bar room, partaking of the vulgar conversation that is introduced, and join the ribald song, or stand at the corner of the streets, using profane and indecent language, you will soon habituate yourself to low blackguardism and vile conversation, and no young man who respects himself will be found in your company .- Boston Traveller.

perceived how the postponement for the present and for a time can, in any shape or in the slightest degree, injure the United States.

The establishment of a kindred and friendly power on the north-west coast of America, is all that England can expect, all, perhaps, that the United States enght to desire. It seems almost incredible that, whilst that object may be attained by simply not impeding the effect of natural causes, two kindred mations, having such powerful motives to remain at speace, and standing at the head of European and American civilization, should, in this enlightened age, give to the world the scandalous spectacle, perhaps not unwelcome to some of the beholders, of an unnatural and unnecessary war; that they should apply all their faculties and exhaust their resources in inflicting, each on the other, every injury in their power, and for what purpose? The certain consequence, independent of all the direct calamities and miseries of war, will be a mutual increase of debt and taxation, and the ultimate fate of Oregon will be the same as if the war had not taken place.

AN EXPOSTULATION

Repeated at a Temperance Meeting by Valentine Antonie, Temperance Lecturer.

Ye friends of moderation, who think a reformation of moral renovation, would benefit the nation;
Who deem intoxication, with all its dissipation,
In every rank and station, the cause of degradation,
Of which your observation gives daily demonstration;
Who see the ruination, distress and desolation,
The open violation of moral obligation,
The weretched habitation, without accommodation,
Or any regulation for common sustenation. Or any regulation for common sustenation. Or any regulation for common sustenation,
A scene of deprivation, unequalled in creation,
The frequent desecration, of Sabbath ordination,
The crime and depredation, defying legislation,
The awful profanation, of common conversation,
The mental aberration, and dire infatuation,
With every sad gradation, to maniacal desperation;
Ye, who with consternation, behold this devastation,
And utter condemnation on all inebriation,
Why sanction its duration, or show disapprobation And utter condemnation on all inebriation, why sanction its duration, or show disapprobation of any combination for its extermination? We deem a declaration, that offers no temptation, By any palliation, of this abomination, The only sure foundation for its extirpation; And under this persuasion, hold no communication, With noxious emanation of brewer's fermentation, of poisonous p.eparation, or spirit's distillation, Nordany vain libation, producing stimulation. To this determination, we call consideration, And without hesitation, invite co-operation, Not doubting imitation, will raise your estimation, You may by meditation, insure the preservation Of a future generation from all contamination, And may each indication, of such regeneration, Be theme of exultation, till its final consummation.
